Fight For Faith Treatment Fee

Christian Scientists Sustain a Reverse In the Ohio Senate.—Defeated By Vote Of 23 To 9.

Anti Saloon League Sharply Criticized By Senator Rose, Who Alleges Bad Faith—State Institution Proposed For Cripples—Measures Passed and Introduced—Legislative Doings.

Columbus, O., March 9.—By a vote of 23 to 9 the state senate has defeated the vigorous efforts of Christian Scientists to tack to the Stockwell bill an amendment which would exempt the scientists from the application of the laws under which the state medical board operates in its examinations. At present the scientists are not permitted to charge a fee for their treatment, but under the amendment proposed they would be permitted to do so. They made their chief fight upon the contention that there should be no opposition to treatment by no other applicant than prayer. The Stockwell bill was then passed.

The Stockwell bill as finally passed provides that physicians from other states, coming to Ohio, shall be charged such a fee for examination and registration as Ohio physicians are charged for similar service in their states.

Bills passed by the house: H. B., Mr. Phillips, fixing the standard of weight of a gallon of maple syrup at 231 cubic inches at eleven pounds; H. B., Mr. Shankland, providing that a joint township high school shall be under the control of a high school committee made up of two members from each of the constituent township boards; H. B., Mr. Huey, providing that trustees of a non-sectarian private school may contract with boards of education to receive pupils from public school districts; and authorizing the boards to contribute to the maintenance of the said school and to pay their share of the cost of new buildings; H. B., Mr. Stockwell, providing that the city auditor shall be the auditor of the school fund in all city districts and authorizing boards of education to fix his compensation for the extra work thus imposed; H. B., Mr. Ditzman, providing that village school districts must have a tax valuation of $100,000 as a prerequisite to formation, except that voters in any proposed district having a less valuation vote to dispense with this provision; H. B., Mr. Shankland, providing that questions for teachers' examination shall be prepared by the state school commissioner and sent under secure seal to the examiners, the seal to be broken in the presence of the candidates for teachers' certificates; H. B., Mr. Spicer, providing that probate courts may divide township funds when a village has been created out of a portion of a township or portions of more than one township; H. B., Mr. Trotter, authorizing the trustees of a township to sell any cemetery in their care to a cemetery association at public or private sale after giving due notice; H. B., Mr. Winters, increasing the age of consent in females from 16 to 18 years; H. B., Mr. Billingslie, to authorize the governor of the state of Ohio to execute a deed for certain lands in Butler county to Carolyn Strande. The house passed the senate bill of Mr. Harper to provide for the appointment of a commission to accept donations and select and purchase lands for a state institution for the treatment and schooling of crippled and deformed children. Bills introduced in the senate: Mr. Readdy, providing for an appropriation of $25,000 to purchase a state camp grounds and rifle range at Port Clinton; Mr. Harper, to provide that the premiums on surety bonds of any elected or appointed officer in this state is to be paid out of the general funds of the division of government by which the person was appointed or selected; Mr. Carter, of Wyandot, to provide where a special finding of facts has been returned by a jury, error may be prosecuted to the circuit court, notwithstanding a writ trial has been ordered. In the senate Mr. Jones charged that the leaders of the Anti-Saloon league were not sincere in their effort to rid the state of the liquor traffic, and that they had deceived him in connection with his county local option bill. Further he charged that the Anti-Saloon league officers had played the tolerance people of the state false in the fight for the women's suffrage bill, and that they were not ready for the abolition of the liquor traffic in Ohio, which the passage of the women's suffrage bill would have insured. That bill, the senator declared, lacked only four votes of passage. He ridiculed the idea that the league with all its state power could not have secured those four additional votes, had it been sincere in the desire to rid the state of the liquor traffic. He then declared that the league had been deceived by the women's suffrage bill, and that they were not ready for the abolition of the liquor traffic in Ohio, which the passage of the women's suffrage bill would have insured. EAMES

Divorce Case Being Heard in Chicago, Continues to Attract Attention.

THE FAIR MRS. EAMES STOPS A BLOW FROM HER FORMER MAID

WHOM SHE ACCUSED OF LOVING HER SPOUSE—AN "UNDER-CROWNED KING OF THE LEVEE" THE COMPLAINANT IS DENOUNCED.

Chicago, Ill., March 9.—A little encounter between Mrs. J. H. Eames, defendant in the sensational society divorce case, and Catherine Dence, her former maid, who made startling charges against her mistress and in turn was accused by Mrs. Eames of improper relations with her husband, occurred in Judge Gary's court room yesterday just after the jury retired for luncheon.

Miss Dence, who had threatened to have Mrs. Eames arrested on a charge of perjury, tried to strike her former employer. Bailiff Santa saw the attempted blow, which Mrs. Eames warded off. He stepped in between the two women. Miss Dence's face was red with anger, and on being prevented from attacking Mrs. Eames she turned upon the latter's attorney, Robert E. Cantwell.

As an outcome of the charges and counter charges Mrs. Eames was threatened with arrest by Miss Dence, whom she accused of improper relations with her husband, John H. Eames.

"Mrs. Eames will have to 'make good' her charges," said Miss Dence, "or there will be an arrest for perjury. She says I got the clothes I now wear after I left her employ. It is false and she knows it."

"That's not all," continued Miss Dence, with growing excitement. "Mrs. Eames said she was an expert musician. That is false. All she can play is the scales. I will swear to that. Before this is over I will be justified or I will have her arrested for perjury."

Attorney McNabb took up his cross-examination by questioning Mrs. Eames closely regarding her acquaintance with E. A. Conday, Harry Graham and others, who are said to have been frequent visitors at the Eames home and whose appearance was said to be the signal for "kino-kino jigs," gin lizzes, champagne, and wild revelries. He went into the Seachard incident and Mrs. Eames again related her version.

"After a dinner at the Auditorium Mr. Seachard, Miss Fargo and I rode home in a cab. Mr. Seachard slept on the couch in the 'den' and I slept in my own room."

"Where was your husband?" "He had telegraphed me that he was in St. Louis and would be home the next day, but he had sent so many bogus telegrams in the course of our married life that I could not say where he was."

"Did you ever leave Mr. Conday to drink at your home?" "Mr. Conday is not a drinking man. He spent most of his time in Europe and New York and I saw him rarely."

"When did you first meet Graham?" "Prior to my going to Europe."

"Ever meet Mrs. Graham?" "No, sir."

"Ever go driving with Mr. Conday?"

"Once before this bill was filed. Since then he has driven me to my attorney's office."

"Do you remember the conversation when Graham said he would marry you when this divorce case was over?"

"I certainly do not remember such a conversation."

Explains Alleged Orgy.

Mrs. Eames then told of the party at her home when she was said to have participated in an orgy while a neighbor lay dying next door.

"My son had a little party at his home, and there was no unnecessary noise. There were three children, my son (who has an impediment in his speech), a little blind girl, and a boy friend, who was deaf."

Attorney Caldwell, in his address to the jury, flayed Eames and the story told by his witnesses.

"Uncrowned king of the levee" was one of the mildest terms applied to the wealthy complainant.

The same cautious sensation-seeking crowds entered into the courtroom yesterday when the doors were opened. Every seat was taken long before Court opened, and the crowds outside were vainly seeking some excuse to pass the bailiffs and gain entrance.

When Mrs. Eames arrived with her attorney Mrs. Eames was forced to push her way through the crowd, which gathered and stared at her as she passed. She was attired in a close-fitting gown. Her picture had been changed for a smart turban.

CRIME

Thinks Coroner Woman Was Not Drowned

EXAMINATION OF BODY OF MRS. EMERICK WOULD INDICATE POOL PLAY—OFFICIALS HAVE NO CLEWS AS YET.

Columbus, O., March 9. Suspicion points to a foul murder committed at Chattanooga, O. Dr. Watters, who acted as coroner at the inquest of the body of Mrs. Emerick, found in a well, has made the following statement:

"The latest developments in the Emerick case is that an examination of the lungs and stomach revealed the fact that there was no water in either, which excludes the theory that she committed suicide by drowning herself, or that she was drowned at all. This added to the fact that it is quite well known that she kept money in considerable quantity in her possession, also

BURK CONVICTED; JURY OUT 15 HOURS

ROBBER OF RIDGEVILLE BANK RECEIVES SENTENCE WITHOUT WORD OF COMMENT.

PRISON 2 TO 14 YEARS—CASE OF JAMES DONOVAN, ANOTHER ALLEGED BURGLAR, IS STARTED AT ONCE—LIMA POLICE TESTIFY.

Winchester, Ind., March 8.—From two to fourteen years in the Michigan City penitentiary and disfranchisement for fifteen years was the punishment given Michael Burke, convicted of being implicated in the robbing of the bank at Ridgeville last October.

The jury was out fifteen hours. The first ballot stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal and after some discussion the jury settled down to eleven to one, where it remained all night.

Burke, the convicted man, heard the verdict of the jury and sentence passed with a change of expression on his face; in fact, he has never spoken one audible word in the courtroom.

Donovan Case Starts.

The trial of James Donovan, who was arrested at Lima and is alleged to have taken part in the robbing of the Ridgeville bank, was started immediately after the Burke jury had reported, the same attorneys being interested.

Russell Branson, cashier of the robbed bank, told the same story as given in evidence in the Burke trial, and Section Foreman Hornet, of Port Recovery, repeated his evidence about seeing the three alleged robbers along the railroad track the day after the crime was committed, but he did not identify Donovan as one of them.

In Farall Lima Raid.

Detective Heffer, of Lima, testified as to the raiding of Sullivan's home when Slater, the supposed leader of the bandits, was fatally wounded, and he stated that Donovan and another suspect by the name of Eddie Kelly were there at the time, but escaped. He then told how that he had arrested Donovan later on a street car in Lima and found the dynamite fuses, caps and a big revolver on the man. The detective also testified that he had seen Burke, Slater and Donovan in Lima together before and after the robbery.

Several Ridgeville witnesses told about the excitement there on the night of the bank blowing, but could not identify the prisoner as being present. It is expected that this case will go to the jury Thursday evening or Friday morning.

WAS VICTIM OF MALPRACTICE

Cause of Forest Girls Death Has Been Made Known.

BETRAYED UNDER PROMISE OF MARRIAGE—YOUNG MAN IN THE CASE NAMED—DUNKIRK PHYSICIAN IMPLICATED.

"The death of Miss Mary Jackson, mentioned last week, was the result of an abortion, and before she passed away she implicated a Dunkirk doctor, and also stated that a young man Emerson Baker was responsible, says the Forest Review.

"The Review had heard appalling rumors last week, coming from a source that carried the weight of conviction, and since that time a very rigid investigation has been made by this paper." The result of the inquiry is such that the Review does not hesitate to state that the young woman was betrayed under promise of marriage, that medicines were purchased of a Dunkirk doctor and given her in the desperate hope that her shame and man's duplicity might be hidden from the world, and that her death followed the result.

"The Dunkirk physician was employed after a trip had been made to a Kenton doctor, but he refused to take it, and recourse was made to the former as mentioned."

It is stated that the Jackson family has received word from Baker since he has been away to the effect that "if wanted" they know where he is located. This letter came from Marion.

He Was Arraigned this Morning, Pled Not Guilty, and Released on $100 Bond.

The Great Southern Hotel, of which Gertrude Lark is proprietress, is receiving a great deal of attention from the Lima police force these days and a short time after the jury in the case against the proprietress yesterday disagreed, a warrant was issued for the arrest of Oliver Richie, her bartender, he being charged with violating the Sunday liquor ordinance. This morning Richie was arraigned before Mayor Robb and was released on $100 bond.

POLICY OF A LIFE COMPANY

Interesting Testimony Offered in the Suit of the Hamilton County Treasurer Against the Union Central.
Miscellaneous Intelligence of the Big Buckeye State.

Cincinnati, O., March 9.—According to the testimony of Jesse R. Clark, treasurer of the Union Central Life Insurance company, in the suit of the county treasurer to recover $175,000 in unpaid taxes, checks for cash amounting to $700,000 were written but never taken from office of the company, as a means of evading taxes. This testimony was given after a long argument by the attorneys against and for its admission. The attorney for the company offered to confess judgment for taxes on $700,000, the amount said to have been covered by unused checks and sought to keep from the record any statement by Treasurer Clark on the matter. However, it was finally decided to submit all the facts to the court, and the statement of Mr. Clark followed. He said that when tax time approached the company had immense amounts of cash in the banks which were taxable as cash, but that all possible were transferred into mortgage loans which were untaxable. Agents were notified to place all such money possible and checks were drawn for the amount of cash on hand, the money being at once credited to the mortgage loan account and being considered untaxable. Mr. Clark held that this was a perfectly legitimate transaction, as the money was out of immediate reach. The rest of the case will be submitted on an agreed statement of the fact and on briefs.

I think in thus thanking you, your subordinate officers and men, I am but reflecting the pride the citizenship of Ohio take in her guardsmen."

Mitchell and Gompers.
New York, March 9.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, had an interview with John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America. They discussed the negotiations now pending between the hard hat soft coal operators and miners. At the conclusion of the conference, Mr. Gompers said he had promised Mr. Mitchell all the support possible which the American Federation of Labor can afford him.

President Gompers came here to confer with the labor leaders concerning the structural iron workers and builders' troubles in this city. He says he does not want to bring about a general strike in the building trades, but that if the other unions support the house-smiths, who are now on strike, and the employers will not give way on the question of the open shop, there is likely to be a general strike.

GRAND LARCENY

And Forgery Alleged in Indictments Against Insurance Men.

New York, March 9.—Indictments charging grand larceny in the first degree and forgery in the third degree by Frederick A. Burnham, president, G. D. Eldridge, first vice president, and George Burnham, Jr., second vice president, of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company, were found by the grand jury. In all, five indictments were brought against each officer, two for grand larceny and three for forgery. The alleged larceny and forgery was brought about, according to the indictments, by payments of $9,000 of the company's money to law firms, the apparent purpose of which is alleged to have been to settle claims against the company, while the real object is alleged to have been to settle actions which had been brought against officers of the company as individuals.

Wanted in West Virginia.

Three indictments have been found by the grand jury in Wheeling against Henderson. The complaint is by William P. Hubbard, of West Virginia. Hubbard's charge is that Henderson swindled him in the sale of a large block of the International Mercantile agency's stock.

Cable to Cuba and Panama.

Washington, March 9.—Secretary Shaw submitted to congress an estimate of $257,000 for the construction of a cable from Key West, Fla., to Guantanamo, Cuba, and thence to the Panama canal zone. A note enclosed with General Allen's report states that both army and navy officers believe the cable necessary to American interests.

CO-RECEIVER TO HELP HARMONOut Suggested By Some Note and Bond Holders,WHO THINK IT WOULD RESTORE EQUILIBRIUM DESTROYED BY TOO MUCH MORGAN DOMINA-TION.

FEELING THAT PRESENT RE-CEIVER IS TOO REPRESENTA-TIVE OF MORGAN POLICY IN THE C. H. & D. PROPERTY.

New York, March 9.—Members of the committee formed in the interest of holders of the $15,000,000 collateral trust notes of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Road, on which the payment of coupons has been defaulted, held a meeting today to consider the situation of affairs. So far as could be learned no definite steps were decided on, the committee referring the matter to their counsel, who are to report on the best means of procedure at the next meeting.

Note holders were disappointed at the outcome, as they had hoped some plan would be adopted tending to relieve them from the painful uncertainty in which they find themselves with regard to their holdings. James N. Wallace, President of the Central Trust Company, who is Chairman of the committee.

Some of the note holders expressed the opinion today that to all intents and purposes the road is now being managed by J. P. Morgan & Co., who are at the head of a syndicate which holds practically all of the company's common stock. It is said that the policy adopted by Receiver Harmon represents, in effect, the Morgan policy in the property. This situation exists, it is pointed out, despite the fact that the road has now defaulted on its notes, which are a direct obligation of the company.

In the case of nearly all receiver-ships, the note holders assert, the receiver, in fact, represents the bondholders rather than the stockholders, and they see no reason why a different arrangement should continue to exist in reference to the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton.

Judson Harmon was appointed receiver of the C. H. & D. railway as well as of the Pere Marquette Railroad last December on the application of a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., who a short time before had repurchased practically all of the company's common stock from the Erie Railroad. One ground for the application for a receiver was that the company was insolvent. Interest on a large amount of the company's common stock from the navy and was met by the issuance of receiver's certificates, which were purchased by J. P. Morgan & Co., the interest on the bonds being paid at the office of that firm.

It was definitely known at the time that the decision of the receiver to issue these certificates for the payment of interest was reached after conferences with the Morgan interests, whose desires in the matter were recognized by the receiver. Between January and March 1 several offers were made by J. P. Morgan & Co. to the protective committee representing the note holders, but the committee felt obliged to refuse all of these offers, which were seemingly intended to eliminate, temporarily the claims of the note holders.

That the protective committee is planning to enforce its rights energetically as the holders of bonded obligations against the company is evident from the fact that there has been talk among the members of the committee that a co-receiver should be made. The committee is still of the opinion that no formal proceedings to declare the notes in default can reasonably be taken before the expiration of 60 days from March 1, but at the same time the committee, or at least some members of the committee, are of the opinion that the application for a joint receiver should be made without awaiting the termination of the sixty-day period.

A party of a dozen shop foremen connected with the car department of the local C. H. & D. establishment tendered their ex-chief, W. D. Lowery, a very pleasant surprise the other evening, and before leaving presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lowery an elegant cut glass water set. Felicitous addresses were made, during which Mr. Lowery expressed his intention of remaining in this city for some time. It is to be hoped that he will eventually decide to locate here permanently.

Uruguayan Charge Talks.

Washington, March 9.—Pedro Requena Bermudez, representative ad interim of Uruguay to the United States, made the following statement relative to the rumored disturbance of public peace in that republic: "I am in a position to guarantee that the most normal and complete quiet is prevailing in all Uruguay, and there has been no seditions or revolutionary movement whatever. Our government simply has taken steps to maintain future public order in the best form possible by the mobilization of troops and police forces. Furthermore," adds Mr. Bermudez, "never could such a movement have been less justified than at the present time. The country has entered in full swing into an era of commercial activity and progress."

REMAINS

Of the Late Antony
M. CunninghamREACHED THIS CITY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON—FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW MORN-ING.

The remains of Antony M. Cunningham, the Lima young man who died in Portland, Oregon, last Saturday evening, arrived in this city on train 2 over the P. E. W. & C. yesterday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock. Funeral Director E. J. O'Connell and a delegation of Lima Council Knights of Columbus met the train and escorted the body to the bereaved home. Accompanying the remains to this city was Mr. Jan. McEntree, one of Portland, Oregon's undertakers, who is also a prominent member of Portland Council, No. 678, Knights of Columbus, who was chosen by the council to make the long journey with their deceased brother Knight.

Antony M. Cunningham was born in Lima, January 21, 1878, being the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cunningham, now deceased. He learned the tailor trade under Mr. J. E. Summers, and after some time in his employ he worked at his trade in Norfolk, Va., and Portland, Oregon. This last year being the second time he was employed in the latter city. He left Lima the 24th day of March, 1905, and had enjoyed his usual state of good health until Tuesday of last week, when he was suddenly stricken with an attack of peritonitis. An operation was performed at St. Vincent's hospital last Wednesday in the hope of saving his life, but death claimed him three days later. He was conscious to the last and had the constant attention of a trained nurse and everything that could be done for his relief and comfort. After his death, Portland Council, No. 678, Knights of Columbus, of which he was a member, took charge of the remains and at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, short services were conducted in the Chapel of the Undertakers who had prepared the body. The Rev. J. H. McDevoret, chaplain of Portland Council, officiating. After the services a large farewell was taken by a large concourse of the friends of the deceased young man, including his brother Knights of Columbus and many others. A large delegation of Lima Council, 436, K. of C. went to the saddened home at Elizabeth and Haller streets at 8 o'clock last night in a body and viewed the remains. The funeral services proper will be held at St. Rosa church, Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Lima Commandery 201, Knights of St. John, and Lima Council 436, K. of C., will attend the services in a body. The choir of the Knights of Columbus will sing at the Requiem High Mass. Interment will be made in Gettysburg cemetery.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and their wives had a pleasant time in the way of a mask surprise party on Mr. Harry Greenland in memory of his thirty-third birthday at his home on west McKillop street, last evening. The party had a delightful time and passed the evening in making the best guess who his guests were before they took off their masks, and passed the rest of the evening in playing cards, after which refreshments were served and the party broke up feeling very jolly over the time they had had and wished Mr. Greenland many more such happy and delightful birthdays.

FLOWER MISSION BAZAAR.
The girls of the Flower Mission are making elaborate preparation for a bazaar to be given on the afternoon and evening of April 11th, the Wednesday before Easter.
The affair will be held in the Auditorium, which will be fitted up with booths of different nations, presided over by girls dressed to suit the nationality. There will also be representations of the middle ages, fortune telling, and dozens of other things to interest the general public. In the evening a cantata and musical program will be given. The undertaking represents a great deal of hard work, and the girls should be liberally patronized, as the proceeds will go to the City hospital, which institution is at present caring for so many charity patients that it is somewhat pressed for funds.

Mr. Perry Paden, of 808 south Pine, a blacksmith at the Lima Locomotive Works, is confined to his home suffering from the effects of a wound received in the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller have returned home after spending the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Roebuck are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burden, of Wapakoneta.

Mr. Lowery Surprised.
Mr. W. D. Lowery, the retiring superintendent of the car department of the local C. & D. shops was very agreeably surprised the other evening by about a dozen of the shop foremen calling upon him at his west Spring street residence. Mr. and Mrs. Lowery were presented with a cut glass water set as a token of the high esteem in which Mr. Lowery is held. Mr. Lowery expects to remain in Lima for some time.

Mrs. E. G. Crouse, of Portland, Ind., has been transferred to the L. E. & W. dispatchers office and will hereafter reside in this city.

Miss Belle Folsom, of north West street, will entertain friends at cards Monday evening.

Orville Coster, of east High street, is here from Dayton, spending a few days with his parents.

S. A. Barden, of the Carter and Carroll Dry Goods firm, has returned from a business trip to New York City.

Mrs. Lewis Koch returned home yesterday from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Groh, of St. Marys.

Mrs. L. L. Ravine and Mrs. Thomas Ruffan, of St. Marys, were in the city yesterday.

A Surprise Party.
Mr. Crant Donner was completely surprised by a number of his friends calling upon him at his home, 221 north Jackson street. A bounteous luncheon was served and the evening passed in an enjoyable manner.

Miss May Cox, Mr. Earl Forest and Earl Spicer contributed to the pleasure of the evening by giving several musical selections. Those present were: Elgin Watsel, May Cox, Florence Jamison, Carl Hatzel, May Cashman, Grant Coner, Blanche Fitzsimmons, Earl Spicer, Hazel Forester, Ed. Bollinger, Jake Bollinger, Logan Donner, Dossie Erlinger, Guy Morris, Mary Golden, Fred Fitzsimmons, Ella Golden, Glen Sprague, Laura Lightner, Letta Donner and Marie Schull.

Miss Agnes Kemmer entertained at her home in Lima last evening, having as her guests, Miss Susie Bos, Messrs Otto Shmitt, B. J. Haverbeck and Chas. Sitzman, of this city. Miss Mabel Hiskey assisted in entertaining by rendering several musical selections.—St. Marys Leader.

Lima Council No. 426 will attend the funeral of Bro. Cunningham in a body Saturday morning. All members will assemble at the residence and proceed to the church. Funeral at 5:30.

COLLEGE DOINGS

The Lima College Lecture course has had such signal success, that it was decided to give the ticket holders an extra. For this purpose Senor Ramon Reyes Lala, the distinguished Filipino lecturer, author and musician, was selected. At the college hall Wednesday evening a large and intelligent audience was delighted with his remarkable story of the Philippines. He gave the history of the islands, from the days of Magellan, through the Spanish regime to the days of the insurgent power, and the final occupancy and ownership of these islands by the United States.

Senor Lala was educated at Oxford, England, and graduated from St. Johns school of that noted institution. Coming to America about fourteen years ago, he was so impressed with our form of government, and institutions that he became an American citizen. He makes frequent trips back to his home in the islands, and thus keeps in touch with his people there. He is the author of one of the most successful works written upon the Philippines, and his two hundred views, which he exhibited Wednesday evening, gave to his audience a very complete story of that fairy land of the Orient. He shows most conclusively the great benefit that the United States has been to the islands during the brief period they have had possession, accomplishing much more in five years than Spain in three hundred years.

Senor Lala's patriotism, high ideas of integrity and morality, were shown at every turn. His audience was in keeping with his every word, and paid him the honor of breathless attention at times and again complimenting his thought by prolonged applause.

Senor Lala is a fine specimen of physical manhood. He possesses a voice, clear and penetrating, yet as sweet as that of a little child, and his selections of characteristic Filipino music, were among the most charming parts of his lecture. He will meet with crowded house whenever he desires to appear in Lima. The management of the college is greatly to be congratulated upon the success of this extra number in the lecture course.

The distinguished Filipino was introduced to his audience by Hon. Isaac S. Motter, who performed the pleasant duty in his able and pleasing manner.

The next number regularly upon the course is by Dr. James Hodley, March 15, when the large number of ticket holders will again be delighted by one of the most popular lecturers before the people today.

HESPER

—BY—

HAMLIN GARLAND

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY HAMLIN GARLAND

"Peace between whom?"

"Munro and Matt."

"Is Munro there?"

"He's waiting to see you. Keep him from Matt; he's in a bad temper tonight."

Ann went out with a wrinkle of vexation on her brow.

Munro was waiting just outside the door in the clear, yellow dusk.

"How is the boy?" he asked as she drew near.

"He is better, thank you."

"I'm mighty glad to hear it. I was worried about him on my own account.

You see he was brought to me by one of my vetettes, and as he had a great deal of information I kept him with us."

"I hope you didn't ask him to betray his friends?"

"He was ready to talk."

"You shouldn't have listened. He is only a boy."

"It is no more than fair, lady, that one member of your household should be loyal to labor." His eyes burned into hers as he bent toward her. "What has changed you toward me?" he asked, with stern abruptness. "You give me nothing but marble brows these days. What have I done that you shut your door in my face?"

"What you do is of no consequence to me except so far as my brother is concerned."

He was too keen not to perceive his advantage. "No woman can play with me and not get enmeshed at some part of the game."

"What do you mean?"

"You know what I mean. You were amused with the wild man for a time.

You played me against Rob for the fun of it, and then pulled out with Peabody."

Ann recoiled before a certain savagery in his voice, and with her hand on the latch of the door, answered

very slowly: "You interested me, I admit. You're very amusing at this moment, but you have no reason, no right, to say that I gave you the slightest encouragement to take this attitude toward me. It is the baldest presumption on your part."

At this moment Kelly opened the door.

"Is it you, Ann?" He stepped aside.

"Go in, girl, your supper's waiting."

Ann slipped in, glad to escape under the great arm which barred Munro's passage. "You stay outside," Kelly said to the young desperado, and his voice was dangerously calm. "I want a word with you. The blood of this night's work will be on your head, me lad. You can't excuse yourself by saying the committee demands it. You are the committee. Man, you're crazy."

The young leader laughed. "They're the crazy ones, to come up against my men on his hill with a lot of old soaks, one lunatics and ex-politicians dead on their heels. But don't worry, there'll be no battle—the clatter of a tin can will scare 'em into bug house fits.

Now, Matt, let me finish what I came to say. We've been good friends, and I want to keep friends. You're a fair man, but let me tell you, the boys are getting bitter against you independent of this fight. You have no business to stand out against the union."

Kelly lifted his big fist in a gesture of menace. "Listen to me, Jack Munro. I've been a working man all my life, whilst you were at school; whilst you were playin' hooky and stealin' plums, and all the years you've been runnin' a roulette wheel I was pickin' at the rocks.

If any man is fitted to advise 'tis Matt Kelly and not a play actor and celluloid bunks stealer like y'rsell. Go yer ways, Jack Munro, but leave me and mine alone. This ends it.

You'll have no welcome from the Kellys here after this night's work, and if ye put so much as the toe of y'ere foot across me path I'll kill you for the reckless, murderin' devil that ye are!"

Munro roared under this angry blast,

but recovered himself. "You'll be coming to me for help inside of twenty-four hours, and you'll get it for the sake of Nora and the kids. Good night."

CHAPTER XXIV.

LOUIS came to himself just before midnight and recognized Ann,

and though his breath was laboring and his face lined with suffering it was good to feel his familiar self reaching out to her from his house of pain.

"How did you get here?" he asked.

"I drove with Dr. Brade."

"I'm pretty sick. I'm glad you came, sis," and he put his hand freely into hers. "Where's Rob?"

"He's sleeping. You must be quiet now or you'll wake him."

"He's been good to me."

"Sh, dearest," she pleaded. "Don't talk now. Go to sleep."

"I don't want to sleep. I've slept enough. It makes my head ache worse."

In the end the boy ceased to groan and twist and at last slept, but Ann refused to go to bed. Her anxiety and the many questions pressing to be answered engaged her so deeply that she felt no need of sleep. Toward midnight Brade, in despair of inducing her to sleep, stretched himself in a low chair and fell into a doze.

It was exactly 2 o'clock when a single gunshot rang out sharply, like the voice of a sentinel questioning the silent night. As the girl listened tense-ly, three others, deeper throated, answered in quick succession. Then silence again intervened for a moment,

only to be torn by a fusillade, a rat-tat of assault which brought Brade to his feet.

Ann hurried to Raymond, calling sharply. "Rob, they are shooting!

Don't you hear them? Quick! Quick!"

Raymond rose to his feet dizzily and looked at her blankly, the mist of sleep thick in his brain. Other shots and cries followed, and though faint and fearful, he cleared his vision. Catching a belt of cartridges from the wall and turning to Brade he sternly asked,

"Can you shoot?"
